

Pricing and Ordering Information

Purchase Options

The following options will help you determine what your costs will be.

Client Based

Client based licensing is typically used when print job information needs to be gathered from the client PC or user that sent the print job.

Server Based

Server based licensing is typically used when no user interaction is required.

Maintenance Agreements

We offer unlimited support and upgrade agreements for a minimal monthly charge. Remote access and the assistance of an on site IT professional may be required to resolve some issues.
